8. 7. 1916 Gentlemen. I am in receipt of your letter of the 24th requesting me to give an explanation regarding the delay in the bringing of the Byrne family to the Fever Hospital. I beg to inform you that I left Burtonport on the 10th at 5.30 with 3 patients and a nurse and John Byrne. I was ordered by the Nurse to go very slow and to escape all the broken stones on the road. I also had to stop every time the nurse wanted to see the patients which was about every half hour. I want you to understand that if patients are to be removed in quick time they cannot get the treatment they should get on the Road. I wish to draw your attention to the removal of the patients on the following dates July 2nd I was ordered to be in Burtonport at 12 o'clock and didn't get leaving there until 7.30 P.M. and on July 4th I was ordered to be in Report at 10. A.M. and didn't get leaving until 3.30 P.M. I hope your Board will consider the injustice of having to wait seven hours on the Pier for patients. your obedt servt

26.10.1916 From Mrs Neil Bonar Derrybroughan Glenties
 Sir. In reply to your note of the 25th inst. I am sorry I am not fit to attend the Board on Saturday nor neither will I take in the child until the time is served that I agreed on to keep her a year and a half at school and clothesher also after that time you put me on for £1 a year wages also I blame the relieving officer for that the lady told me she should be clothed with the wages. If you are going to take her before her time is served you must send one of the same home in her place. The girl is not willing to leave herself. did I ever refuse my agreement to pay wages and schooling but for the future I must get more than 2 days notice why don't you ask me and not be asking woman any one likes to see her here is better from than I get her. the girl also tells me the R.O. told her to go to Rose in home of the Rock's. heard some of my neighbours were putting in complaints of shite work. Living is different and after time is served I am willing to do as usual. I had the R.O. here last Thursday too often I am listening to his talk since I got her
